

Huczek wins Lou Bradley racquetball tourney

October 18, 2009

Jack Huczek remained perfect at The Lou, winning the 12th Annual Lou Bradley Memorial Pro-Am Racquetball Tournament this weekend to give him four titles in four tries at The Lou.

Huczek, ranked third on the International Racquetball Tour (IRT), was on top of his game throughout, rolling to the title without losing a game. He coasted past Connor Heuffner, Joey Logan and Sun Prairie native Andy Thompson to reach the final before taking out eighth-ranked Ben Croft 11-4, 11-7, 11-5 in the final.

Croft rolled to three-game victories over Danny Salamone, Paul Krueger and 11th-ranked Juan Herrera to advance.

Saad Siddiqui had a great tourney, winning both mens B and C singles, as well as teaming with Dennis Gunn to place second in mens B doubles. Justus Benson and Jordan Barth, the top two 10-year-old players in the country from Junior Nationals who will be representing the United States at the World Championships in the Dominican Republic, won mens B doubles and also made the semis of mens A doubles.

Tracy Chynoweth topped Carl Evers in the final of the 35+ Open final, while Mike Kenney defeated Joey Salamone in the mens Open final, a dropdown from the Pro division.

As usual, the Saturday night festivities started with the Pro Final at 9 p.m. and continued late into the night, making for several tough matches Sunday morning. Matches ran from 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Friday; 7 a.m. until midnight Saturday and 7 a.m. until 6:30 Sunday.

The draw featured 124 players in 20 divisions from eight different states. Three of the top 11 ranked players in the country participated. The results of the tournament are listed below.
